

Parenting Workshop for Fathers

Skilled Dads

For fathers of children newborn up to 6 years of age

Duration 2.5 hours

There is widespread support for fathers' increased involvement in children's lives. Research and experience shows that positive, close relationships between fathers and their children leads to enhanced cognitive, social, emotional, and behavioural outcomes for the child.

Ngala's 'Skilled Dads' workshop aims to enable fathers to better understand their child and to build close, strong relationships with their child as a loving, caring and active father. General mental health and wellbeing issues are also addressed.

'Skilled Dads' workshops are held after work hours and are presented by an experienced male member of Ngala's Hey Dad WA program. The workshops are held in a comfortable community setting with free parking available.

The Skilled Dads workshop is open to all fathers from all backgrounds.
