

COUNTRY FAMILIES @ NGALA

Home Visiting Service

Are you from the country and staying in Perth temporarily after your baby is born?

A Ngala Child Health Nurse can provide the first health check for you and your baby. This includes:

- Visiting you and your family at your temporary address in Perth
- Checking your baby's development and growth
- Checking your health and recovery
- Providing support and information on caring for your baby
- Linking your family with services as required

To book an appointment, please contact our Child Health Nurse:
